Business Printing

Have you always wanted to launch your own business, but lack the facilities to do so? Do you have a business idea but you don't know how to get started on your business plan? Would you like to sell your baked goods or food items to grocery stores or businesses, but you realize that a grocery store cannot sell items you baked in your home kitchen?

Do you dream of catering weddings and other affairs? CoffeeNet is pleased to announce the launch of its incubator and commercial kitchen program, aimed at helping aspiring entrepreneurs, caterers and food producers start their businesses.

CoffeeNet can help aspiring entrepreneurs no matter what type of business is desired. For those in the catering arena, CoffeeNet's kitchen is a fully licensed commercial kitchen that can be rented by entrepreneurs to test ideas and begin food production for the marketplace. In addition to obtaining deeply discounted prices on services needed to launch your business, other benefits of membership in this program include:

- Use of a well-equipped kitchen by reservation only
- Opportunity to network with others in the start-up phase of business
- Opportunity to launch your business before committing to set up your own independent operations
- Grow your business in a controlled way while perfecting your product, labeling and delivery systems with minimal financial risk
- Management and marketing advice
- Seminars and classes on entrepreneurship
